(2) Braunschweig

Breakfast at the hotel. The administration in Braunschweig (~400km). Braunschweig is the Second largest and population city of Lower Saxony, the city of Henry the Lion and till Eulenspiegel, the capital of the once mighty Braunschweigische Duchy.

When it comes to Braunschweig, the first that comes to mind Brunswick sausage. History buffs can remember the husband of the Regent to the Russian throne of Anna Leopoldovna, Prince Anton of Brunswick. Well football fans with the experience can remember the team "Eintracht" from Braunschweig.

Braunschweig is a German city living vibrant, exciting lives.

First of all, Brunswick is the Altstadt, that is, the Old town. At the heart of this historic quarter is a pedestrian zone and Cathedral of St. Blaise – a work of early Gothic architecture built by the Duke of Bavaria and Saxony, Henry the Lion. Henry fought with the Emperor Frederick Barbarossa, and with the Slavs, and in every way adorned the Braunschweig, which became the capital of his Duchy. Here he is buried. In memory of Henry on urban symbols often, you can see the image of a lion.

In short, the tourists have something to assess in Braunschweig. Quiet streets, bike paths, quiet streets, pleasant parks - all this contributes to pleasant walks.

Spare time: possibility to visit the Christmas markets or just search one of the finest restaurants of the city. Most cafes and restaurants offer delicious German dishes: sausages, beef sausages, roasted pork knuckle, liver pate and perch, baked with vegetables. Of course, all these delights are made to drink the peerless German beer, such as beer "MAMME" — it is "Brunswick mommy." This malty beer is known since the 14th century and at one time was the main exported product of the city — including in India and even to the Caribbean.

5 things to do in Braunschweig:

- 1) Smile and come in cheerful spirits, looking at the Happy house
  - 2) Admire the classic Gothic style of the XII century, the Cathedral of St. Blaise
  - 3) See "Brunswick elbow," according to which medieval merchants measured cloth
  - 4) take a Picture of the symbol of the city is Braunschweig lion
  - 5) Buy a real Brunswick sausages in one of the retail stores
- Day move. Overnight in Amsterdam.

(3) Amsterdam

Breakfast at the hotel. The departure of the tour.

Amsterdam is navaratnas a city of contrasts, its rich history and the life of free capital. 400 years ago, the city was decorated with a magnificent necklace of the channels. On Dam square was erected by the 8th wonder of the world — now the Royal Palace. We will also see a New Church, the Beurs van Berlage, national monument, hidden courtyards, Flower market, Museum square. Amsterdam will not leave You indifferent. Literally everything here is unusual. Old and colourful houses, is curved in different directions, similar to birdhouses in which they live colourful foreign birds. The narrow streets with their complicated topography. Rather, it is part of the game in which You direct participant. You will be glad of the flowers and plants in the famous flower market. Then You will find yourself in an ancient courtyard where we had the béguines.

Free time. The possibility of visiting the numerous Christmas markets in the city. You will plunge into the festive atmosphere of Christmas.

Here you can fully feel the magical Christmas spirit. Noisy fairs, skating on the canals of the city, festive turmoil, mulled wine and a donut and more.

Everyone will find in this festive city. Because Amsterdam is amazing! Because Amsterdam is a leader in the Christmas festivities! Because Amsterdam will not leave anyone indifferent!

Since the beginning of December to end of January in Amsterdam is an extraordinary light festival Amsterdam Light Festival, when the channels of the city, houses, bridges is originally decorated and lighted Christmas lights. A stunning sight to see!
